HOLIDAY HOUSE 1961

This 1961 house is from Cangkring village in Central Java. It was home to a farming family for four generations, before they sold it to build a new house for their children.

This home is a tribute to the strength and care of a family deeply rooted in farming. Just steps from the pristine Selong Belanak Beach and minutes away from some of Lombok’s best surf breaks, you'll find everything you need to escape, relax and have a blast.

Our mantra is simple: “Every day is a Sunday, and we never have a bad day!”
